The Wave of the Future

Vol. 20, No. 3

March 2020

Bethel No. 86,
Job's Daughters

Rohnerville-Redwood
Chapter No. 76

Hi all,

This month has been a calmer one for us. We helped with the annual Crab Feed at the Six Rivers Lodge in Arcata with our PHQ, Katie, and our two bee's, Aubrey and Logan! We have exciting events coming up next month and are trying to expand our beehive. We recently went back on reorganization due to our lack of members but we'll be working on it.

Brooke Hansen, HQ

Edith Smith, a member of Rohnerville-Redwood Chapter No. 76, turned 100 years old, in November. Bill Butrica (in the picture with Edith) and his daughter Cindy Murphy visited with Sister Edith and presented her with a certificate from the Grand Chapter of California and a bouquet of flowers from the Chapter.

Our Inspector's Official Visit went very well. Worshipful Garrison spoke on some interesting topics including Master Masons renewing their Obligation at the alter. Our next stated meeting will be March 9th at 7:30. Practice nights March 2, 16, 30, again at 7:30. Lets not forget, daylight savings time starts Sunday March 8th, and I'm ready !

Our kitchen/dining room upgrades are completed! So, this year our Annual Lodge dinner will be at the Lodge on Monday March 23rd, prepared by our Brothers. Social hour at 6:00 and dinner at 7:00. No charge, but dinner donations will be accepted. Dinner menu: Salad, baked ritz chicken, bake potato, vegetables, rolls, and cheese cake for desert. Bring your spouses, significant others and of course our widows are ALWAYS welcome. You MUST RSVP, so we know the amount of food to prepare, to Lee Astorino 445-8303 or Randy Cady 845-3415. RSVP cut off date is March 15th. If you don't RSVP, you might not be eating. Looking forward to a relaxing evening and pleasant visitation with everyone.

Humboldt No. 216, Rainbow for Girls

Humboldt Assembly had a great December and hope you also did with family and friends. After our holiday gift exchange, we delivered plates of cookies to the police and fire departments. We started February off with an installation of officers, and March 23rd will be our "Alumni Meeting". If you are a Majority Member and would like to join us and/or take a station for the night, please contact the Mother Advisor, Mrs Tricia Coombs.

We still have See's Chocolate bars for sale to support our state Service Project, Painted Turtle. This organization helps pediatric patients navigate the journey with various kinds of assistance, while they enjoy camping. Bars are $2.50, for plain dark or milk chocolate.

We are getting excited for Grand Assembly in Fresno and are making plans for that trip. To help fund the trip, we are holding a bake sale at Pierson's on March 14th from 10-2. Our own Hope Crossley is a member of the Statewide PR Team and she will be leading the Saturday morning PR Workshop at Grand Assembly for Rainbow Girls all over the state!

Stayed tuned for more Rainbow happenings soon...

Aahmes Redwood Shrine Club & Djinns Band

Humboldt Lodge No. 79

Dear Masonic Family and Brethren,

March has been declared by our Grand Master of California John E. Trauner the "Youth Orders Month" in recognition of the impact they have on our fraternity and community. Please help support the youth orders by any means possible- they are our future!

As Master of Humboldt 79, March is the month I put on my calendar to push our individual donations to the California Masonic Foundation. I challenge all our officers and members to participate in donating to the CMF by going to www.freemason.org/give or online at www.masonic-foundation.org and pledge to give a monetary donation to help with Masonic Relief and/or the Literacy Program. Any amount is greatly appreciated, no matter how big or small -you do make a difference.

We call on our brethren who haven't attended lodge in awhile to know that we welcome you wholeheartedly, and appreciate your support. If you would like a ride to lodge, let us know! We encourage participation of our membership at all lodge functions- because without your support, our Lodge is just a building.

P2BAM,
John Prince (JP) WM

Greetings from the South!

I recently listened to Robert Bly, James Hillman, and Michael Meade's seminar entitled "Men and the Life of Desire" (freely available on YouTube). A part of the seminar discusses how men frequently seek meaning through ritual, myth, and fellowship. They claim that not having sufficient exposure to these three things can often leave a man feeling unfulfilled. Upon hearing this talk, I immediately thought of Masonry. While the reasoning behind every brother's path through Masonry differs, it seems as though most can be connected to at least one of these three things. Considering that modern life often lacks ritual, is devoid of myth, and at times actively discourages male fellowship, Masonry offers a path to fulfillment for the modern man. If this at all sounds interesting to you, I encourage you to listen to the seminar on YouTube and to strike up a conversation with me at the next Lodge event.

Your Junior Warden,
Adam Carter

Scottish Rite Valley of Northern California

Brethren,

Our Scottish Rite year has officially begun now that the 2020 Shrimp Feed is in the bank. Another spectacular dinner thanks to the efforts of the Food preparation staff in presenting the shrimp, steaks, salads, deserts and beverages. Thanks to Job's Daughters and the Rainbow Girls for their help with serving and cleanup, it is a big job and you do it so well. Let us not forget all the donations of food, as well as Silent Auction items. Last but not least, the community which provides so much in support and donations, this makes the support of our Children's Speech Therapy Program Possible. Be sure to tune in next month to learn about the particulars of the Speech Therapy Program.

In March we will begin practicing for the presentation of the Scottish Degrees at the Fortuna Lodge. Our practices will be on the four tuesday nights beginning at 7:00 PM (3/3, 3/10, 3/24, 3/31). We will tentatively be performing the 4th through 18th degree on saturday, April 18th at 8:00AM. If interested in helping please show up at our first practice on March 3rd at 7:00 PM.

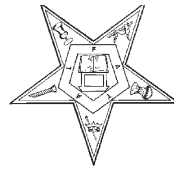

March Stated Meeting is on Thursday, March 19th at 7:00 PM at Eel River Empire Lodge. There will be no dinner. Thank you.

Greetings Sisters and Brothers!

We have had a great start to 2020, and have enjoyed some delicious stated meeting dinners. For February we were treated to a wonderful meal of tri-tip, salmon and homemade Mac-n-cheese. Many thanks to Sisters Sally and Brooke for preparing dinner! We are looking forward to our March Stated Meeting. Dinner is at 6:30, we can't wait to find out what we are having.
